Nurturing Children's Imagination: Waldorf in Family Child Care

July 17, 2024, 6 – 8pm Zoom

This course will introduce Waldorf Education as a method of guiding curriculum practices in family child care. Participants will learn how Waldorf's holistic, play-based principles contribute to children's imagination and creative expression. This course will outline how to incorporate the core practices of music, handwork, storytelling, and art, throughout the day. The course will focus on how this curriculum approach can be implemented in a family child care program.

Learning Objectives

1. Understand the holistic, play-based principles of a Waldorf education approach.
2. Recognize how to incorporate the core practices of music, handwork, storytelling, and art throughout the day.
3. Acknowledge how a Waldorf curriculum approach can be implemented in family child care.
